HAWKESBURY UPTON

PART OF THE BESPOKE COLLECTION
BY SPITFIRE HOMES

RUTHERSTONE

HAWKESBURY UPTON

Set amongst the patchwork fields of South Gloucestershire, and just half an hour by car from Bath and Bristol, Rutherfordstone represents a collection of 21 new homes which enjoy a calm and secluded situation in the village of Hawkesbury Upton.

SPITFIRE HOMES

Representing the homebuilding division of IM Properties, we are a forward-thinking, modern, privately-owned business specialising in the construction of sustainable, high-quality homes.

Dedicated to design for over a decade, Spitfire Homes is an award-winning company constantly striving to find the perfect blend between style and practicality.

Rutherford forms part of the Spitfire Homes Bespoke Collection, an exclusive portfolio of high-specification properties in some of the country's most desirable locations.

Employing a design-led approach, Spitfire's Bespoke Collection has forged a reputation for creating distinctly individual residences which are constructed from a hand-selected range of premium materials and showcase an interior specification comprising a variety of luxury brands.

DELIVERING SUSTAINABLE FUTURES

Spitfire Homes is committed to delivering sustainable developments to benefit both the locations we build in, and the people we build for.

At Rutherstone, all homes are powered by air-source heat pumps and benefit from electric car charging points and A+ rated appliances.

Alongside this, Spitfire Homes is also providing 7 affordable housing units at Rutherstone and is contributing to various areas of the local community as part of the S106 agreement.

This includes contributions of:

- £78,470 to education
- £10,571 to the provision/enhancement of natural and semi-open space
- £17,536 maintenance fee for Hawkesbury Upton Recreation Ground
- £40,465 to outdoor sport facilities
- £12,247 for the maintenance of outdoor sport facilities
- £21,186 children and young people
- £22,277 to maintenance of children and young people
- £927 to allotment provision/enhancement
- £1,182 to Birgace Road allotment maintenance

WELCOME TO RUTHERSTONE

Rutherfordstone presents a selection of unique properties in the delightful village of Hawkesbury Upton.

The collection showcases 13 generously-proportioned detached houses, with a choice of three, four or five bedrooms, as well as a spacious two-bedroom detached bungalow with substantial living space.

Sympathetically designed in keeping with its Cotswold setting, each of the 14 private properties available have been individually designed to suit the ever-changing needs of modern life.

COTSWOLD CHARM

Hawkesbury Upton

The Beaufort Arms

The Somerset Monument

Hawkesbury Upton lies on the Cotswold Way and is surrounded by the tranquil South Gloucestershire countryside. This idyllic village has a distinctly Cotswold aesthetic and is set on a hillside, overlooking the adjacent valley.

Village life is relaxed and unhurried with opportunities for long country walks and lazy Sunday lunches.

There are a number of local amenities, including a village shop, post office and two traditional country pubs, the Fox Inn and Beaufort Arms.

The village has a strong sense of community, with its own cricket club and walking group. Its annual event calendar includes a horticultural show, literature festival, golf championship and regular theatre group performances.

LEISURELY PURSUITS

Badminton House, Badminton

Horton Court Folly, near Chipping Sodbury

There are several nearby villages and towns within reach of Rutherfordstone. The closest is the tiny hamlet of Hawkesbury, with its centrepiece being The Church of St Mary, a 12th century Cotswold stone Grade I listed building.

Four miles away is the village of Badminton and the 52,000-acre Badminton Estate. This historic estate includes several listed buildings and has acres of beautiful gardens to enjoy. At its heart is Badminton House, the magnificent stately home of the Duke and Duchess of Beaufort.

Sherston is the largest of the surrounding villages and is just six miles away. This quaint village provides a number of amenities including a doctor's surgery, farm shop and a selection of restaurants and pubs, such as the Rattlebone Inn – a traditional English country gastro pub.

The nearest town is Chipping Sodbury, which is 14-minutes by car. This picturesque market town has its own golf club and several supermarkets including Waitrose and M&S.

North east is the beautiful town of Tetbury, with its quaint streets and historic architecture. The town has a treasure trove of antique shops, galleries and independent boutiques to explore, as well as a selection of cafés and restaurants, including The Priory Inn and Snooty Fox, ideal for enjoying a leisurely lunch.

CITY LINKS

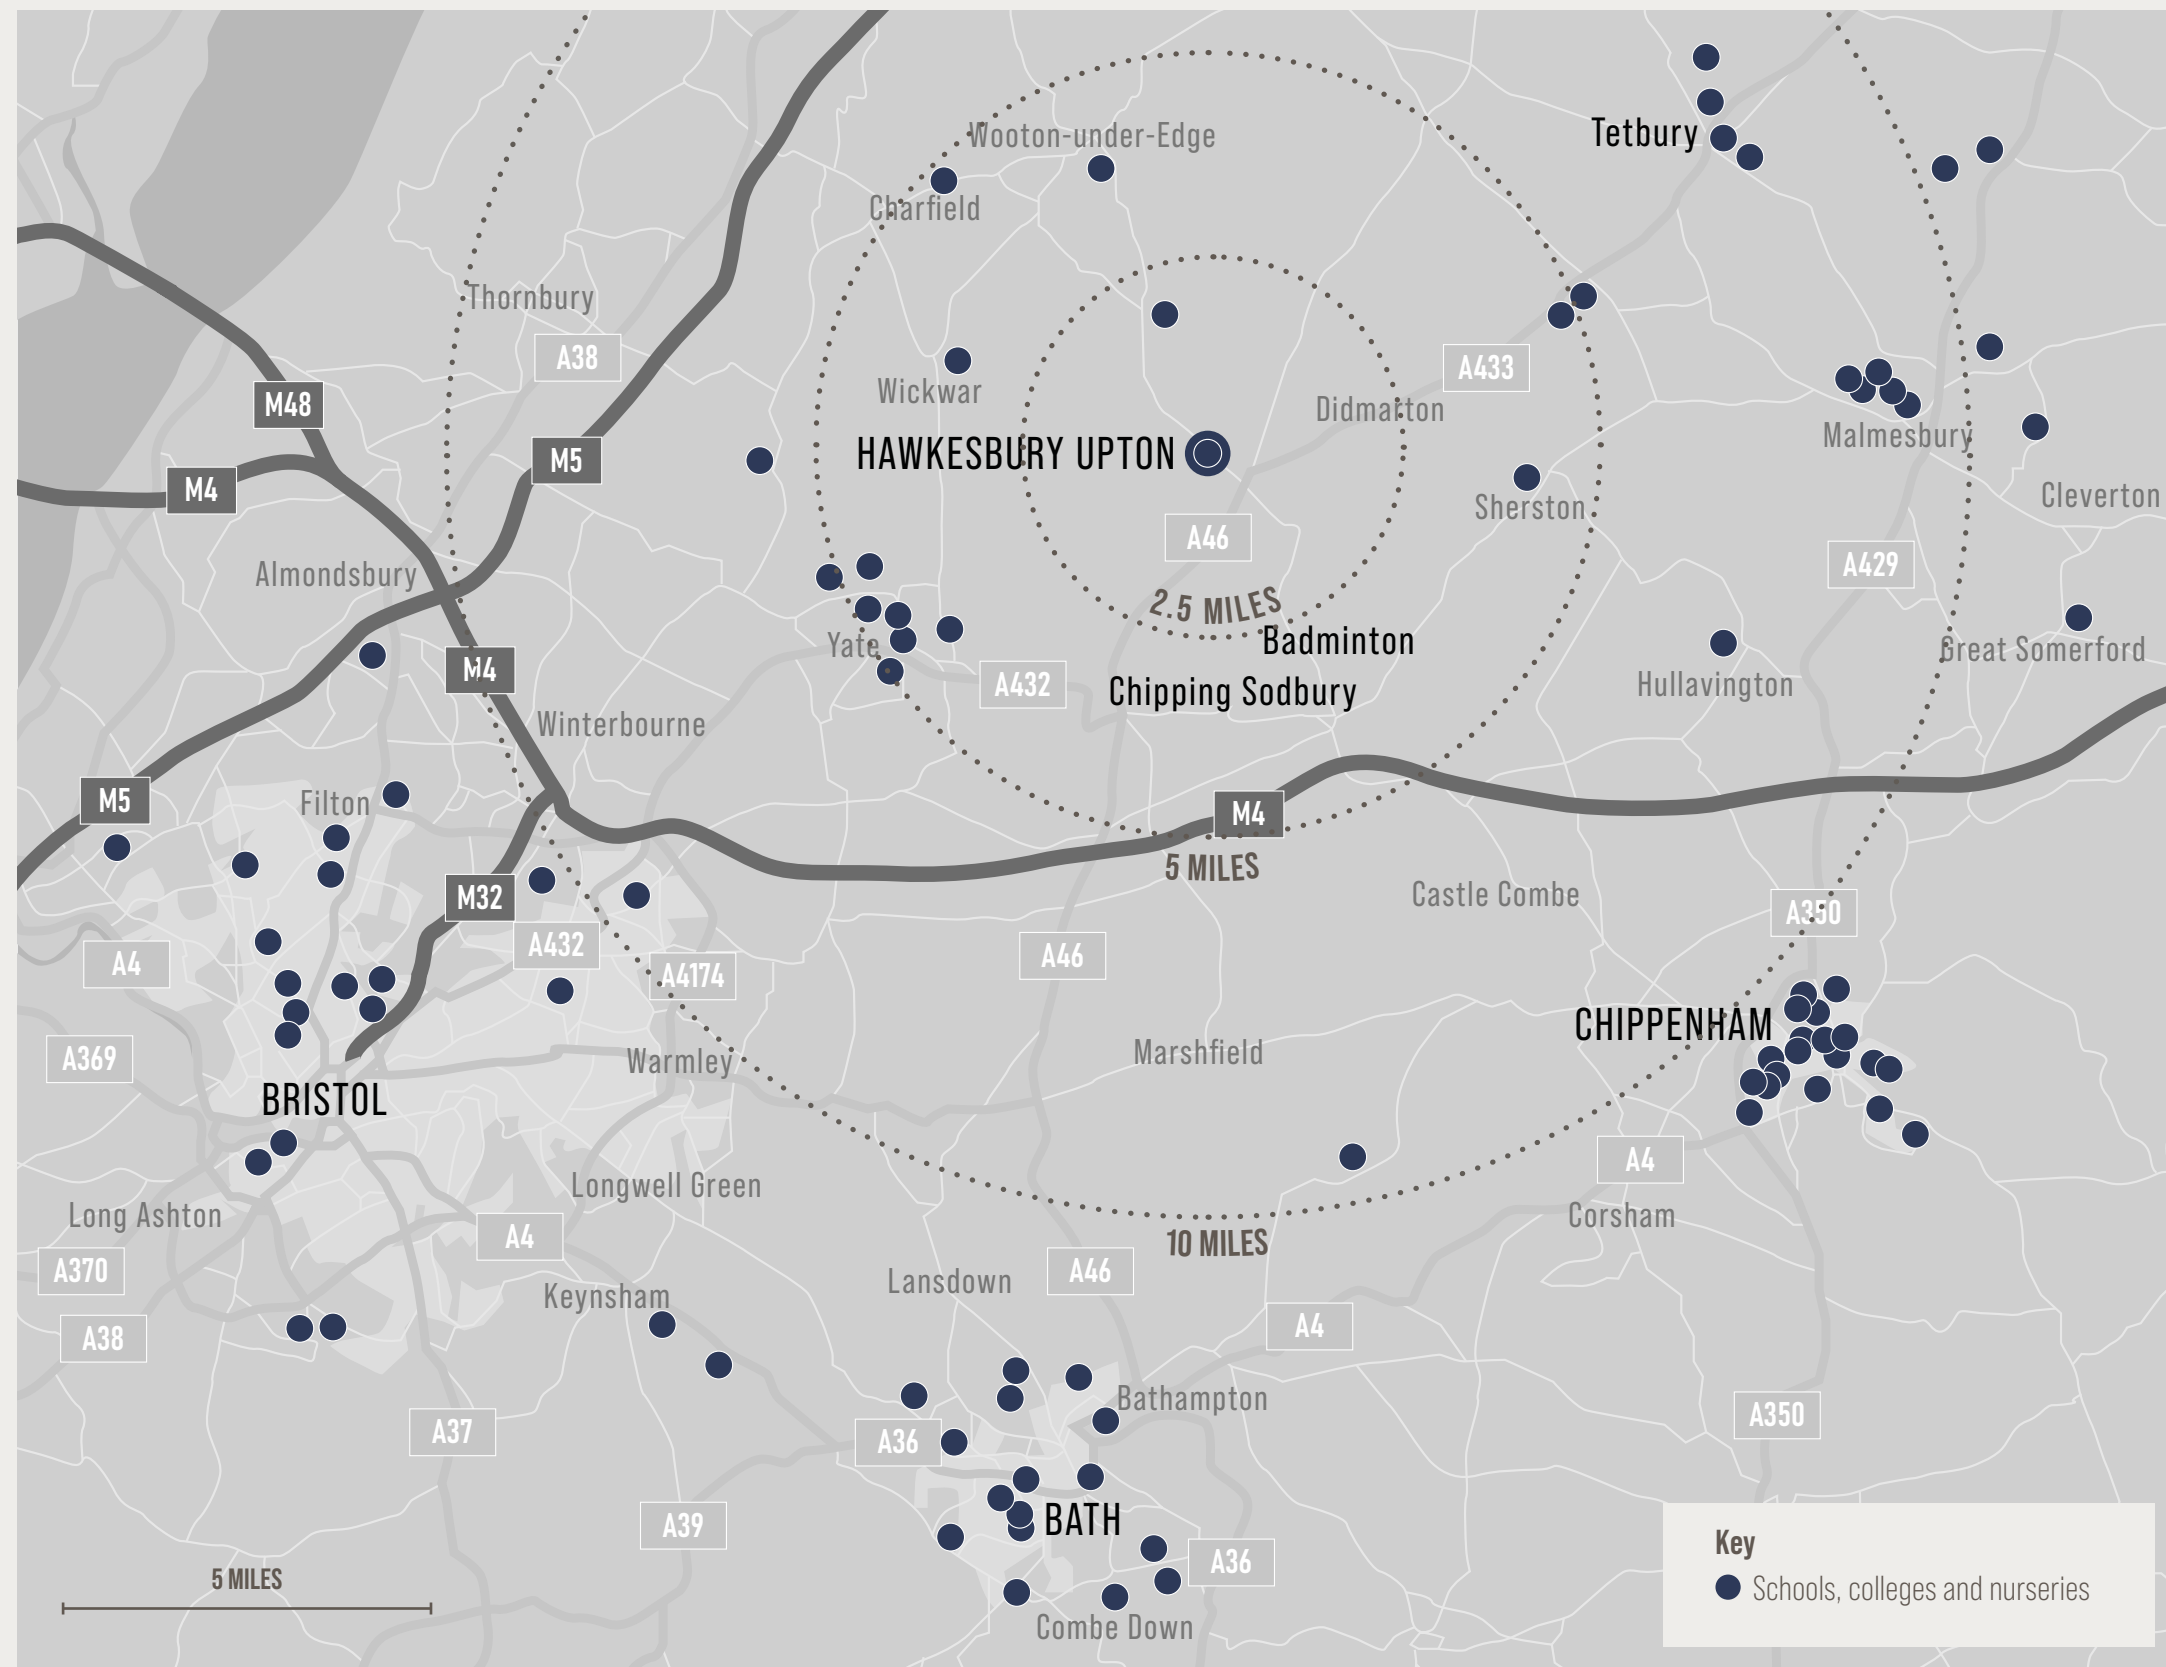

Hawkesbury Upton is less than 20 miles from the bustling cities of Bristol and Bath.

Bristol offers a vibrant mix of culture, entertainment, shopping and nightlife. There are a plethora of cafés and eateries on offer for all occasions, whilst the Michelin-starred Casamia offers a more refined dining experience, and is renowned for its indulgent 20-course tasting menu.

The historic city of Bath is famous for its striking Georgian architecture and ancient Roman baths. There's a fine selection of museums, galleries and independent shops to discover, including the Victoria Art Gallery and the SouthGate shopping area. Catch a show or enjoy a meal at one of the many restaurants, including the Michelin-starred Olive Tree.

The Christmas Steps, Bristol

A BALANCED LIFESTYLE

Whether it's commuting or leisure, Hawkesbury Upton is an ideal location.

When it comes to work, Rutherford benefits from excellent commuter links, whilst also offering the added flexibility of home-working from the study, with access to superfast broadband.

By road, the two nearest cities are within 20 miles. Head south of the village to the A46, which links to Bristol and Bath, or follow the A433 north east to Cirencester.

Bristol Parkway railway station is 17 miles from Hawkesbury Upton. From here there are regular trains to London Paddington, with a journey time of around 90 minutes.

The nearest airport is Bristol, which is around 30 miles from the village and offers flights to a number of domestic and international destinations.

CENTRED ON EDUCATION

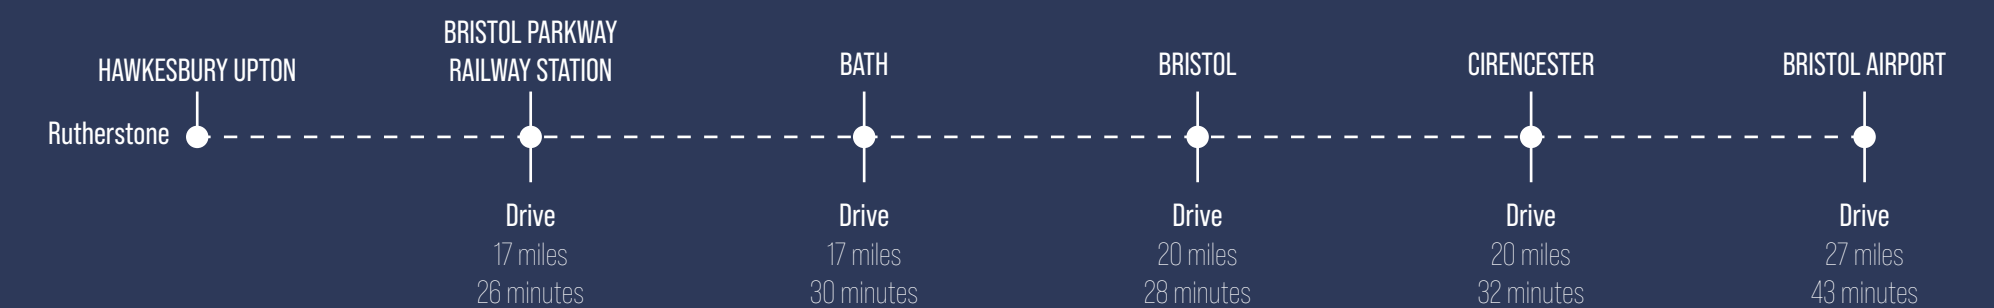

For younger children, Hawkesbury Upton has its own pre-school and toddler group held in the Village Hall, which offers a stimulating environment for learning and play.

Older children benefit from a choice of schools in the local area, many of which have Ofsted ratings of Good or above.

The nearest independent school is Wycliffe College in Stonehouse, which is less than a 30-minute drive from the village. The college takes children aged 3 to 19, with the option of boarding for children aged 7 and above.
